++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cloudy. Increasing chance of showers later.

Today:
Often cloudy with a few outbreaks of showery rain through the morning. The odd brighter spell is likely during the afternoon, but more widespread showers probably developing by evening. Feeling rather cool in the east. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers continuing on-and-off overnight. Extensive North Sea low cloud spreading inland, perhaps thick enough to give the odd spot of drizzle in places. Feeling rather mild. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
A dull and murky start for many with a mix of patchy drizzle and showery rain. Rain easing from most parts into the afternoon, and bright or sunny spells developing. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Generally dull and cloudy starts Thursday and Friday with warm afternoon sunny spells and a few showers. Fresher on Saturday with extensive cloud and showers or longer periods of rain.
